

STEM of Many Colors

Hear about careers from minority STEM professionals from JHU Applied Physics Laboratory, National Society of Black Engineers, Varen Technology, Institute of Marine and Environmental Technology, National Institute of Aging and more

Keynote Speaker: County Executive Dr. Calvin Ball

Panel Discussion: The Importance of STEM to Minority Communities

College Discussion with Author Valarie Austin

Event is for High Students and their Parents. Lunch is provided and clinch bags will be given away.

November 1, 2019
11:45-3:00 pm
Wilde Lake High School,
5460 Trumpeter Lane
Columba, Maryland 21044